6. Colorado Report

I am just back from a week in Colorado where I skied Breckinridge, Cooper and Keystone - OMG - simply amazing!!! Great mountains and incredible snow! It was still winter with a huge base and more still falling almost every day. Apparently they get most of their snow in March and April. I would be hard pressed to pick a favourite - all super - with really long runs of consistent grades. One can conveniently stay in Silverthorne (great shopping) and be minutes from several fabulous resorts in the area. Perhaps a future club destination.
